

Music & Rhythm Socials

About the Events

Two free music and rhythm socials will be held in April 2015. The first will be at Ramsey Park from 10am-11am on Saturday April 4th. The second will take place at the Yarborough Branch Library from 11am-12pm on Saturday April 11th. During these events two cellists will play a series of pieces from movie sound tracks to classical works. This event will intersperse communicative opportunities led by Celina Cerf a Speech-Language Pathology Master's Student at the University of Texas at Austin, movement activities, and cello performances. Anyone from the community is welcome!

Ramsey Park April 4th 10am-11am

Yarborough Branch Library April 11th 11am-12pm

About the Performers

Dr. Jun Seo graduated from the received a Bachelor of Music Degree from the New England Conservatory School of Music in Boston in 2009. He received a Master's of Music Degree in Music Performance from the University of Texas (UT) at Austin in 2011. He recently finished his Doctor of Musical Arts Degree in Cello Performance with Professor Bion Tsang at University of Texas at Austin. As a teacher, Dr.Seo taught at the UT-String Project for many years and he currently holds a full studio in Austin Texas. More information can be found at: <http://www.cellojun.com/>

Jesse McCheane Vredenburgh (Mic) received a Bachelor of Music Degree with Professor Bion Tsang in 2011 and a Master's of Music Degree with Professor Joshua Gindele from UT at Austin in 2014. As a teacher, Mic taught at the UT-String Project for two years and he currently has a private cello studio in Austin Texas. More information can be found at: <http://jmvredenburgh.com/>

Contact Celina via e-mail at cmariecerf@gmail.com with any event questions